

AFFIDAVIT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

All F-1 students are required to provide documentation of financial support before an I-20 document can be issued.

If the student will use his/her own personal funds as the source of financial support, the student MUST PROVIDE A BANK STATEMENT showing the availability of liquid assets, per the program requirements listed below. Bank statements and financial affidavits should be dated no older than six months, and must be original and attested by the relevant bank official.

If the student will be supported by a private sponsor (family member, friend, or private institution), the sponsor must sign the Statement of Financial Obligation below. In addition, sponsors MUST PROVIDE A BANK STATEMENT showing the availability of liquid assets, per the program requirements listed below. Bank statements and financial affidavits should be dated no older than six months, and must be original and attested by the relevant bank official.

If the student will be sponsored by a public agency (embassy, home government, public institution, religious organization, etc.), the agency must provide written verification that the costs will be covered. Sponsorship statements should reflect the semester and year of the student's application to Heidelberg University, and should be dated no older than six months.
