Dear Heidelberg at Heidelberg students,

Grüße aus Heidelberg!

Up until now, you have corresponded with Peggy George in the Office for International Programs at Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio. She will continue to be available to answer your questions about many aspects of the Summer Program.

On this side of the Atlantic, please allow us to introduce ourselves:

- Dr. Hanne Heckmann – Director of the Summer Program in German and an instructor for German language and literature. I am a native of Heidelberg. I received my Ph.D. from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and later taught German at Lafayette College and at the University of Rhode Island. I have been with the American Junior Year at Heidelberg University since 1991.
- Dr. Brian Tracy - Resident Director of the American Junior Year program. Having grown up in Florida, I studied at Tufts University. My graduate work at Johns Hopkins was in the field of international politics. I came to Germany in 1975, taught first at the University of Göttingen, then was Director of the German-American Institute in Heidelberg before moving to the American Junior Year program in 1987.
- Michael Kress, M.A. – Summer Program Assistant. A former American Junior Year student, Michael is now pursuing a Ph.D. in History at the University of Heidelberg.
- Various instructors of the International Study Center at the University of Heidelberg

Please take the time to read carefully through the FAQs and other predeparture information. And feel free to contact us at any time if you have special concerns or questions. Once you arrive in Germany, we will do our best to insure that your time as a student in Heidelberg is as rewarding--and as enjoyable--as possible.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Heidelberg in May.

Sincerely,

Hanne Heckmann, Ph.D.
Director, Summer Program in German Language and German Studies
