Greetings from the Owen Center for Teaching & Learning! We are excited about your future here at Heidelberg!

If you still need to do so, please complete all the items on checklist one. After you complete the Advising survey, an Owen Center advisor will use this information to begin building a schedule for you.

Our goal is to have a draft of your Fall schedule built over the summer so that we can collaborate and make necessary edits. In order to have a draft schedule to work on, you must complete all placement assessments, the advising survey, and submit your final/official transcripts.

Once a draft is complete a member of the Owen Center staff will send that draft to your Heidelberg email address so that you will have the opportunity to review it, schedule a meeting to discuss it, and ask any questions you may have. Meetings can be held in person, over the phone, or via Zoom/Googlemeets.

Do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions throughout this process.
