

Chandler A. Hulse (Diven)

Ph.D. Candidate, Indiana University (Bloomington)
Assistant Professor of Criminology, Heidelberg University (Tiffin)
Department of Behavioral Sciences
Office: Bareis Hall 318
Email: chulse1@heidelbuerg.edu

Research Interests: Crime and geography, distance decay, police use of social media, and policing people experiencing homelessness

Education

Ph.D., Criminology and Criminal Justice | August 2021 - Present | Indiana University

Minor: Geography

Dissertation Title: The spatiality of people experiencing homelessness [Working title]

Chair: Dr. Arvind Verma

M.A., Criminal Justice | Conferred, May 2018 | Radford University

Thesis Title: Using social media to connect with the public: An exploratory case study of a police department use of Facebook

Chair: Dr. Nicole Hendrix

B.C.J., Law Enforcement | Conferred, May 2016 | Tiffin University

A.A. | Conferred, August 2014 | Northwest State Community College

Teaching Experience

Instructor of Record, Indiana University, August 2024 – May 2026

- CJUS-P100: Introduction to Criminal Justice (Spring 2026)
- CJUS-P100: Introduction to Criminal Justice (Fall 2025)
- CJUS-P100: Introduction to Criminal Justice (Spring 2025)
- CJUS-P100: Introduction to Criminal Justice (Fall 2024)

Associate Instructor, Indiana University, August 2021 – May 2024

- CJUS-P100: Introduction to Criminal Justice (2 Semesters)
- COL-C104: Death Penalty (1 Semester)
- CJUS-P200: Theories of Crime and Deviance (1 Semester)
- CJUS-K300: Techniques of Data Analysis (2 Semesters)

Graduate Assistant, Radford University, August 2016 - May 2018

- Constitutional Law (2 Semesters)
- Criminal Law (2 Semesters)
- Evidence Processing (2 Semesters)

- Law & Society (2 Semesters)

Research Experience

Research Assistant, Indiana University, Indianapolis, December 2024 - Present

Supervising Faculty: Dr. Eric Grommon

- Collect, analyze, and disseminate data and research related to prosecution topics
- Current focus is on dissemination of qualitative research related to perceptions of prosecutors in the criminal justice system
- Create a codebook for variable collection and organize variables in Microsoft Excel for thematic analysis

Qualitative Research Assistant, Indiana University, Bloomington, May 2024 – September 2024

Supervising Faculty: Drs. Miriam Northcutt Bohmert and Eric Grommon

- Collaborate with other researchers on cleaning, managing, and coding interview and focus group transcripts
- Create thematic headers for consistent codebook analysis for both individual interviews and focus group transcripts
- Collaborate and help supervise an undergraduate researcher to clean and code transcripts

Translational Reports

Interview Report

Diaz, C., Northcutt Bohmert, M., Ying, M., Hulse, C., et al. (2025). Why clients enroll in diversion programs: Promoting racial justice and transparency in Indiana. Indiana University.

Focus Group Report

Northcutt Bohmert, M., Diaz, C., Henry, T.K., Ying, M., Hulse, C., et al. (2025). Focus group analysis report: Promoting racial justice and transparency in Indiana. Indiana University.

Presentations

Oral Presentations

Hulse, C. & Grommon, E. (September 2025). Understanding public perceptions of prosecutors: A review of available literature. Presented at the Midwestern Criminal Justice Association (MCJA) conference in Chicago, IL.

Hulse, C. (January 2022). Exploring the peacefulness of neighborhoods: An analysis of nuisance crimes in Bloomington, IN. Presented at the Indiana Geographic Information Council Emerging Professional Research Competition via Online.

Poster Presentations

Diven, C. (November 2018). Using social media to connect with the public: An exploratory case study of a police department use of Facebook. Poster presented at The American Society of Criminology (ASC) conference in Philadelphia, PA.

(University, Campus, Community, Global, etc.) Service

Mentorship of Undergraduate Teaching Assistant, Indiana University Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, August 2025 – December 2025

Duties: Collaborating and mentoring an undergraduate student inside and outside of the classroom on how to talk with students, host office hours, grade objectively, lead and administer in-class activities, construct exam questions, and lead an in-class lecture

Guest Lecturer, Introduction to Criminal Justice, Topic: Environmental Criminology and Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) at Indiana University - October 2025

Graduate Faculty Representative, Indiana University Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, August 2025 – Present

Faculty Hire Committee, Indiana University Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, August 2024 – August 2025

Peer Coordinator, Indiana University Department of Criminal Justice, August 2023 – May 2024

Workshop Attendee, Crime and Place Summer Institute (CPSI), Southern Illinois University, Carbondale - July 2023

Workshop Co-Leader with Dr. Yuri Kim, Sustainability & Tech Skills: ArcGIS Crash Course, Indiana University, Bloomington - January 2024

Guest Lecturer, Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (GIS) course by Dr. Yuri Kim at Indiana University - October 2023

Professional Experience

Corrections Officer, Community Corrections of Northwest Ohio, June 2018 - December 2018

Duties: Supervising 60+ male and female inmates in medium and minimum-level security units.

Criminal Research Specialist, Metropolitan Police Department (D.C.), Summer 2016

Duties: Intern for the Homeland Security branch in police headquarters to assist detectives with real-time investigations. Utilized CAD programs, ankle-monitoring systems, and report writing software.

Organization Affiliations

- Midwest Criminal Justice Association Member
- American Society of Criminology Member
- Alpha Sigma Phi
- Criminal Justice Club Member, Tiffin University (2015)

Certifications

- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Radford University (2017)

Awards

- Teaching, Learning, and Scholarship Outstanding Graduate Student Award, Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (Spring 2026)
- Hue and Cry (Department Teaching) Award, Indiana University (Spring 2026)
- Nominated for ACJS Teaching Award by Department, Indiana University (Fall 2025)
- Doctoral Summit Attendee Award, American Criminal Justice Society (Spring 2026)
- College Travel Award Recipient (Amount in $470), Indiana University (Fall 2025)
- J. Steven Lung Award (Amount in $1500), Indiana University (2025)
- Trustees Scholarship Recipient, Tiffin University (2014 – 2016)
- Outstanding Student Award, Tiffin University (2018)
- Varsity NCAA Division II Equestrian Team Scholarship, Tiffin University (2016 – 2017)

Skills

- Research Methods: Qualitative, Mixed-Methods, Quantitative, Mapping
- Data Collection: Interviews, Surveys, Focus Groups, Observations, Secondary Sources
- Software: ArcGIS Pro, RStudio, Microsoft Office, Qualtrics, Interview Transcriptions