BEEGHLY LIBRARY

ABOUT BEEGHLY

Over 120 Research databases are available from the library's website, Most databases allow off-campus access using the barcode number on your Heidelberg ID.

Group and Single Study Rooms are available for student use. We have two group study rooms with large-screen tvs that can be used for group projects, watching a film for class, or practicing a presentation.

Special Collections include the Besse Collection of Letters, the Beale Collection on Opera, and Government Documents

INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCE CENTER

The Instructional Resource Center (IRC) is located on the lower level of Beeghly Library.

It houses a materials production area. Materials available for personal purchase include poster board, construction paper, craft roll paper for bulletin boards, cds, and dvds.

With on-site equipment, patrons can produce overhead transparencies, make die-cut lettering for signs and posters, laminate materials, duplicate videotapes to dvd, and more.
