Introducing Future First Year Week!

June 22-25, 2020

We know how excited you are to begin your Heidelberg journey! Since Orientation is still over a month away, we've created a week of virtual mini-programming to introduce our amazing faculty and students.

These sessions are designed to be fun and engaging- no paperwork or checklist items, just meeting and mingling with the wonderful people who make Heidelberg so special. Full session descriptions are below and you can register for one or more sessions by filling out this Google form! Pre-registration is required by Thursday, June 18th so we can send you the Zoom links for your selected sessions.

If you have any questions please reach out to engagement@heidelberg.edu.
