PRE-DEPARTURE CHECKLIST

Once you have applied to the AJY program and been accepted, there are a number of steps you must take in preparation for your semester or year in Heidelberg:

- Return your confirmation form and deposit to the AJY office in Tiffin, Ohio by the deadline stated on your acceptance letter.
- Make sure you have a valid U.S. passport. U.S. citizens do not need a visa. Non-U.S. citizens should contact the German consulate to find out their visa requirements. To find the consulate nearest to you, go to: German Missions in the US
- Book a flight to Frankfurt Airport (FRA) and a return flight home.

By June 1st (December 1st for spring semester students), print, sign, and mail the following forms to the AJY office in Tiffin, Ohio:

- Transcript with current semester grades
- Transfer Credit Approval Form (filled out by your study abroad advisor)
- Disciplinary Clearance Form (filled out by the judicial affairs office at your home campus)
- Universität Heidelberg Application and Matriculation Form
- 1 recent photo (passport standards)
- Medical History Form
- Health Clearance Form
- Liability Release Form

By June 1st (December 1st for spring semester students), complete and submit the following forms online on the AJY website.

- AJY Housing Form
- AJY Travel Plans Form
- AJY Emergency Contact Form

AMERICAN JUNIOR YEAR AT HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY (AJY)

On-Site Program Staff

The program staff consists of the Resident Director, the Assistant Director, and a Program Assistant. As Resident Director, Hanne Heckmann coordinates the academic program and acts as liaison with the Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg. She has a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and taught at a number of U.S. universities before coming to the American Junior Year program. She provides academic advising and assists students in making course selections. She initiates and interprets program policies and procedures, and functions in general as an adviser and counselor.

Dr. Styles Sass, the Assistant Director, holds a Doctoral Degree in American Studies from the University of Heidelberg. His research interests include U.S. presidential campaigns and representations of violence in American fiction. Before coming to the American Junior Year program, he worked at the Heidelberg Center for American Studies. In his current position, Dr. Sass provides administrative and technical support to the AJY study center, teaches courses on German literature, culture, and politics, coordinates the Summer Program, and manages the AJY alumni network.

The Program Assistant, Carina Steenfatt, is studying Geography at the Universität Heidelberg and assists the resident director, generally oversees the AJY office, plans AJY events and supports students with everyday matters.

The AJY Center

The Center is conveniently located on University Square in the city center's main pedestrian zone. The building itself was constructed as a private residence in the year 1703. The Center is the hub of AJY life in Heidelberg and serves several functions. It houses our offices, four classrooms, a fully equipped computer room, a student lounge/kitchen, and bathrooms. The Preliminary Course is taught here during the month preceding each semester, as are all the other AJY classes. The Center is also used for AJY student meetings and social events. Students can use the Center to study, read, mingle, or just relax between classes. In the lounge, students can watch TV and films, and enjoy beverages and snacks. Each student also has a mailbox here, so that packages and even luggage can be sent here in advance of your stay. The Center is open from 7:00 am. until 11:00 pm., and the AJY staff is available to meet with students during regular office hours or by appointment. From late May to early July, the Center is also home to our Heidelberg Summer Program.

AUF DEUTSCH, BITTE!

One of the main goals students have for coming to Heidelberg is to improve their command of the German language. The program's philosophy is that you will learn German best by consistently speaking, reading, and hearing German.

Consequently, German, not English, is the language used in the Study Center and for general communication and program activities.

PREPARING FOR YOUR STAY

Travel Documents

When obtaining or renewing your passport, please begin the application procedures early. Students who are U.S. Citizens only need a valid passport to enter Germany. If your passport will expire during the time you are in Heidelberg, apply for a new one now — prior to your departure. Passport applications and instructions can be downloaded from the State Department website: travel.state.gov. First-time applicants must appear in person at a passport agency. The State Department website allows you to search by zip code for a list of locations nearest you where you can submit your application. Do not sign the form in advance because you need to do this in front of an official. If asked for an address in Europe, use the AJY office address given below:

American Junior Year at Heidelberg University

Hauptstrasse 133

69117 Heidelberg, Germany

- We recommend that you make a copy of the first page of your passport and leave it at home with a parent or friend. If your passport should get lost or be stolen, it is much easier to obtain replacement with the information on the copy of the old one.

U.S. citizens do not need a visa to travel to Germany and no inoculations of any kind are required. Your U.S. passport allows you to enter Germany and stay up to 3 months. Paperwork for your residence permit will be taken care of once you arrive in Heidelberg. All students should note that it may take 2-3 weeks to receive your residence permit through the AJY.

If you are not a citizen of the U.S., Canada, or a country within the European Union, you need to contact a German Consulate (or the German Embassy) closest to you to obtain a student entrance visa and residence permit. You will not be permitted to enter the country legally without this entrance visa. Please notify the AJY staff in Heidelberg that you are applying for a student entrance visa.

Traveling to Heidelberg ... and back home

AJY students make their own flight arrangements to Germany, arriving on the day that the AJY program begins (see academic calendar). The nearest airport is Frankfurt International Airport.

Students will be met by AJY staff at the airport. AJY makes arrangements for a group transfer to Heidelberg for students arriving by noon on the official day of arrival. Approximately one week before the start of the program, we will provide you with detailed arrival information. Students arriving independently in Europe before the start of the program can either join us at Frankfurt International Airport or meet us at Heidelberg's Main Train Station.

AJY students make their own flight arrangements to Germany. For researching flights, we recommend consulting the following sites:

GenerationFly.com

StudentUniverse.com

STATravel.com

CheapTickets.com

- ➔ Please be aware that these discount agencies will not provide the same level of service as travel agencies or airlines. They also usually have high fees for changes or cancellations, so read the fine print. You should also consider purchasing travel insurance that covers flight changes or cancellations.

Full year students may encounter the problem that they are not able to book their return flight in advance. In this case they may elect to either enter an assumed return date they can later have changed (check applicable fees in advance!), or simply book a one-way flight and book the return flight once they are in Germany.

What to pack – what not to pack

Heidelberg's weather is moderate but damp. Winter brings more rain and slush than snow. You need to bring an all-weather coat and water-resistant shoes. Summers can bring frequent showers but otherwise, summer weather is warm and pleasant, seldom extremely hot, but sometimes humid.

German students usually dress casually. However, you will want to bring along at least one outfit for special occasions such as concerts or theater performances.

Do not bring bedding unless you have a very favorite pillow! You will be supplied with a pillow, a comforter, and a set of sheets. So you do not need to bring anything.

Above all, try to pack light! It is best to pack a small amount of clothing that will give you a good number of combinations. Keep in mind that you have to carry your own luggage through airports and train stations and up and down stairs. Regarding the costs of bringing bulky items such as musical instruments or sports equipment, please consult with your airline.

Students from previous years have left items at the Study Center to give away or be sold during the flea market that is organized on the date of arrival. Items such as mobile phones, alarm clocks, radios, hair dryers, extra blankets and towels, and irons are usually available.

- ➔ Another way to avoid carrying extra weight is to ship a box to the Study Center ahead of your arrival. Be sure that your package is properly marked with "Used items for personal use only – exchange student." Be aware of customs regulations! (please see p. 14)

We recommend that you bring:

- A sufficient supply of any prescription medicine you need,
 - An extra pair of glasses, cleaning solution for contact lenses,
 - Sturdy walking shoes,
 - A towel and wash cloth,
 - Your laptop computer. Virtually all laptops are configured to handle European as well as U.S. electrical current without the need of a separate transformer. But you may wish to check with your manufacturer just to be safe. You will definitely need a plug adapter to fit German-style sockets; these are best purchased in the U.S.
 - Musical instruments. If you play an instrument, you can bring it with you, as there are many opportunities to join groups in the performing arts.
- ➔ No street shoes are allowed in the university gyms. If you plan to do indoor sports, bring one new pair of shoes or plan to purchase a pair upon arrival.

We advise against bringing other electrical appliances – European current is 220 volts 60 cycles AC and will ruin American electrical appliances that are not made for international travel. Inexpensive appliances are available in drugstores or at the AJY flea market.

In general, almost anything you can buy in the U.S. is available in Germany. If in doubt, opt to pack light. There is a good chance you will want extra room in your luggage to bring back items you will have bought during your stay in Germany.

Arrival and Departure Dates, Semester Schedule

For detailed 2018-2019 Academic Calendars please consult our website at Program and Semester Dates.

PREPARING FOR YOUR STUDIES AT UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG

You will find the adjustment to German academic life an interesting challenge. As an American student, you are accustomed to frequent tests, regular assignments, course syllabi, assigned textbooks and easy access to professors. All of these are rare in the German system. Academic freedom, so renowned at German universities, will challenge you to cultivate self-discipline and responsible study and planning. You will notice a more pronounced difference between lectures and seminars, the frequent use of oral testing, and the expectation that all students participate actively in seminar discussions.

The philosophy of the program is to leave you sufficient freedom to experience the German system and yet to provide support and structure when that freedom may become overwhelming. Academic advising is designed to help you select courses that will be appropriate to your interests and language ability and which best correspond to the curriculum requirements of your home campus.

Preliminary Course

Required of all program participants, this month-long course provides sixty hours of intensive practice in listening and reading comprehension, and advanced German grammar and vocabulary, thereby preparing the students for the University's German Language Proficiency Examination.

The course is supplemented by a program of visits/excursions to various cultural institutions around Heidelberg with an emphasis on exploring contemporary German society.

University Language Proficiency Exam

Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (DSH, German Language Proficiency Exam) is comprised of a written and an oral examination assessing your language skills. These skills are needed to attend classes and take notes, read and analyze texts, and manipulate the German language well enough to write exams and papers. This examination is administered at the beginning of each semester by Universität Heidelberg, and you will receive a certificate. AJY will cover the exam fee. Failure to pass the exam may require adjustment to your initial course selection, but will not preclude you from obtaining the full number of credits for the semester. Should you fail the exam, you have the opportunity to retake the exam (at your own expense) at the end of your stay.

Academic planning for the semester

Numerous sessions during the Preliminary Course will deal with academic planning. The program's "Guidelines for Academic Planning" will be distributed and students will be provided with pertinent information about courses. Each student meets with the program director individually to make a preliminary selection of courses. During the first two weeks of the university semester, you attend courses listed on the preliminary course selection form and, in consultation with the program director, determine which of these courses will be pursued for credit. During this time, you will also clarify any open questions you might have with your home campus advisors. By the end of the second week of the semester, a final course selection is agreed upon by the student and the program director. We then send an official copy of this final course selection to the student's home campus.

Grades and Transcripts

It is the responsibility of the student to hand in a grade report (Schein) from each course at the end of the semester. The program director translates these into U.S.-style grades and sends them to the Registrar's office in Tiffin for the student's official AJY transcript. You are responsible for ordering a copy of your AJY transcript through your Pipeline account to be sent to your home school at the end of each semester. You should check with your study abroad office as to where it should be sent. Since transcripts are ordered online, you can easily do this from Heidelberg. Transcripts for the Fall Semester are usually available by mid-March and for the Spring Semester in late August. Note that a hold will be put on your transcript until any outstanding bills for room damages or cleaning has been paid.

Your AJY transcript is held on record permanently at Heidelberg University and you can (re)order official transcripts at any time in the future. You will most certainly need to do so if you apply to graduate or professional schools later.

MONEY MATTERS

For your initial needs it is a good idea to bring along approximately 200 Euro in cash. During the first couple of weeks, you might be spending more money than during the semester because of initial purchases...

The current exchange rate (June 1, 2018) for U.S. Dollars/Euro is:

US $ 1.00 = EU € 0.86

EU € 1.00 = US $ 1.17

If you would like to bring along € 200, as we recommend, you will need to exchange around $ 233.70. If you want to follow daily exchange rate, use: www.x-rates.com.

- ➔ In addition, bring along your checkbook or some U.S. dollars in cash for purchases at the AJY flea market.

ATM Cards / Credit Cards

Most AJY students use ATM machines to withdraw cash from their U.S. bank accounts using a debit card. This is a convenient method of transferring money with relatively low transaction fees. Please inform your bank/credit card company that you will be using your card abroad. Some companies require a clearance for the use of their card abroad. Be sure to ask about the daily limit on the amount you will be able to withdraw. Leave a photocopy of your bank card with your parents before leaving for Heidelberg.

Credit cards are convenient to have in case of unexpected expenses. Visa and master cards are widely accepted in Germany, American Express cards much less so.

Few AJY students elect to open a personal account at a German bank.

Employment/Job

Can you earn money by working in Heidelberg? Yes, within limits. Students receive a residence permit that will allow them to work up to 90 days or 180 half days per calendar year while in Heidelberg. However your academic work should always have priority.

- ➔ Each semester, AJY offers paid student positions (part-time) to help with office-related work. Students can also apply for the paid AJY Social Media Expert position.

MEDICAL ISSUES

Insurance Coverage

(Comprehensive Health, Personal Liability, Medical Evacuation, and Repatriation of Remains)

AJY arranges health insurance coverage for you with companies recognized in both Germany and Europe. Your program fee covers the cost of this insurance. Coverage includes: Doctor's visits, prescription medicine (except for the first few Euros of each prescription, for which you are responsible), hospital care (with the exception of approximately 12 Euro per day, for which you are responsible), routine dental and eye care, and, if needed, physical therapy or counseling. There are special regulations in regard to coverage of pre-existing conditions or in the event of pregnancy.

You will have access to university hospitals, the university counseling center, family physicians, and specialists. The Program maintains a list of dentists and doctors our students have visited in the past. AJY staff is experienced in dealing with emergency matters and provides help for students seeking routine treatment. Prior to your departure from the U.S., please inform the staff of any problem or disorder which may cause you difficulty and which may require treatment.

Coverage begins on the date the program begins. It is valid throughout Germany and many European countries but does not cover students in their home country. You will not be covered for injuries sustained while participating in risky activities, e.g. bungee jumping. The insurance remains in force until the end of the month in which you terminate your studies with the program. If you plan to arrive early or to remain in Europe after leaving the program, you are responsible for your own insurance.

- ➔ In addition to health insurance, the AJY program arranges for all the students to be covered by Personal liability insurance and Insurance for medical evacuation and for repatriation of remains during the duration of the program.

HOUSING

Housing Policies

All room assignments are made by the German office in Heidelberg, not the American office in Tiffin. The American office does not receive your addresses in Germany in advance.

The Business Office in Tiffin, Ohio will bill you for your room rent, along with the billing for the general program fee. Full year students will receive two separate billings.

Your room in Heidelberg is available on the day of official arrival. No earlier check-ins are possible. It continues to be available until the last day of the program as seen at Program and Semester Dates.

Extended fall students and students who stay for two semesters (so-called full year students or FYR students) keep their rooms during the holiday break (December 24, 2018 through January 6, 2019). FYR students also keep their rooms during the break between the two semesters (mid-February to mid-April).

Room assignment

All AJY student rooms are located in university dormitories throughout the city or in private dormitories for students only. Since there are different types of rooms, we give you the opportunity to list your preferences by filling out the online housing form on our website at Pre-Departure Forms. Once the university student housing office informs us of your assignment we will forward you your dormitory address usually about one week before your arrival in Heidelberg.

The Program expects that you will accept your room assignment. You may have to accept a housing arrangement different from what you desire, but be assured that we will take your preferences into consideration and final assignments will be made in the fairest manner possible.

All students in the program are expected to show common sense and respect for the rights and privacy of others in the housing arrangements. Failure to act responsibly and courteously could force the program director to require that you vacate your room.

What your room looks like

All rooms are single rooms, usually in suite arrangements (3-6 people) with shared kitchen and bathroom facilities. Laundry facilities are available in all university dormitories. In addition, there are several laundromats throughout town.

Rooms are furnished with basic furniture: bed, desk, desk lamp, chair, shelves, clothes closet, rug, and curtains. The program will also provide you with bedding (pillow, comforter, and sheets). Additional items, such as essential dishes, can often be purchased reasonably at the AJY flea market or at local stores.

- Except for furniture and bedding (pillow, comforter, sheets, and some dishes), the dorm rooms are empty when you arrive, so you may need to purchase some additional supplies to make your room feel like home.

Upon arrival, you will be given an inventory sheet on which to record the condition of your room. Please list any problems or damages. Your room will be inspected at the end of your stay by the building superintendent, and you will be charged for any necessary repairs or cleaning.

DAILY LIVING

Meals, Shopping

Unlike American colleges and universities, German universities offer no semester-long meal contracts in their cafeterias. Instead, you purchase each meal individually. There are two university cafeterias close to the AJY Study Center. They are open for lunch and dinner Monday through Saturday. You can get a full meal for less than 5 Euro. Of course, there are also many ethnic restaurants near the AJY Study Center which cater to students and tailor their prices to a student budget.

Most grocery stores are usually open between 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. Some supermarkets remain open until midnight. Keep in mind, all stores remain closed on Sunday. You will quickly find out that shopping in the grocery store and cooking in the dormitory kitchens is the best way to eat at a reasonable price.

Clothing

Do not forget to bring comfortable walking shoes! Sneakers or flip-flops will make AJY excursions and field trips less enjoyable. You might also want to pack appropriate clothing for a visit to the opera, a festive dinner, or other social events.

Mobile Phones

AJY requires that you have a mobile phone while in Heidelberg as part of our safety policy, so you must either have a plan in your home country or buy a pre-paid SIM card here in Germany (e.g. AldiTalk or Congstar). For more information on different providers and phone calls to and from Germany, you may want to consult: german-way.com or ricksteves.com.

LAN / WIFI

You will be able to access the internet from the computers in the AJY computer room and from your own laptops via wireless Internet throughout the entire AJY Study Center. All dorm rooms are equipped with internet access via either LAN connection or WIFI. Within the campus range you also may use the university WIFI. You will be able to activate this connection once you are officially enrolled at Universität Heidelberg. It is also good to know that Heidelberg is in the process of installing public WIFI throughout the city.

Mail

Be sure to give everyone your AJY address before you leave. Please use the following format:

Your name
c/o American Junior Year at Heidelberg University
Hauptstrasse 133
69117 Heidelberg
Germany

Be sure that your package is properly marked with "Used items for personal use only – exchange student." Specific information on restrictions and regulations can be found on the website of German Customs Services: www.zoll.de/EN

Bicycles and Public Transportation

Heidelberg is very bicycle-friendly and has an extensive network of bike paths. Many AJY students buy cheap, used bicycles (along with an expensive lock!) to get around town and most places can be reached within a 15 to 20 minute bike ride.

As any other German town of its size, Heidelberg has a convenient network of buses and streetcars that will take you nearly everywhere. On weekdays, buses and streetcars run every ten minutes on most lines, with weeknight and weekend services a bit more limited.

The Heidelberg Semester-Ticket purchased for you by the program will allow you use of local and regional public transportation in a large area of southwestern Germany, extending to Würzburg in the East and to Wissembourg, France in the West.

Behavior and Responsibility

As a foreigner, you have the responsibility of respecting the traditions of the host country, obeying its laws, and observing the regulations of its institutions. In most cases you will be able to do this by using common sense and exercising courtesy and respect for the rights of others. In some cases, you will need to inform yourself about regulations and practices that are different from those at home.

You will need to familiarize yourself with the "Student Code of Conduct" for the program, which is distributed as part of the orientation materials you receive when you arrive in Heidelberg. We will also familiarize you with the Heidelberg University Sex Discrimination Policy (Title IX). The program expects you to pursue your academic work earnestly, with discipline and integrity. The great amount of freedom at this German University will require considerable amounts of self-discipline. In all respects, students are expected to adhere to the policies and guidelines in this handbook. More materials on the issue will be distributed at the orientation sessions that take place in the first few days of the program. Finally, we expect all AJY students to follow the rules governing the use of the AJY Center and the AJY Students Safety Provisions.

Places of Worship / Spiritual Life

Regardless of your religious affiliation, you will find that places of worship provide you with excellent opportunities to meet new people and become involved in community life in Heidelberg.

- The two major religious denominations in the area are the Roman Catholic Church: khg.unikativ.org and the Badische Landeskirche, which draws from both Lutheran and Reformed traditions: www.esg-heidelberg.de.
- There is also a synagogue and an active Jewish community in Heidelberg: jkg-heidelberg.org.
- While the mosque in Heidelberg is rather small, a larger mosque any is just a short distance away in neighboring Mannheim: www.ditib-ma.de
- Other churches and religious groups are represented in the Heidelberg area also: Methodist, Anglican, Baptist, Mormon, Quaker, Mennonite, Seventh-Day Adventist, and more. You may wish to consult www.kirche-heidelberg.de

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The possibilities for getting involved are limited only by your imagination.

From Amnesty International to Environmental Groups, University and Church Choirs, Theater Groups, Sports Clubs – the opportunities are endless: Das StuRa Dschungelbuch.

Service Learning

The AJY program has a long tradition of student volunteers: they work with children, in nursing homes or senior citizen centers, food banks, homeless shelters, and more. During orientation, we will discuss your options. If you would like to browse their catalogue of volunteer opportunities, please go to Paritaethd.wordpress.com

Cultural Opportunities and Sports

You will find that Heidelberg and the surrounding area have an enormous number of cultural institutions and events to offer.

- ➔ You will be provided with a set of AJY Culture Coupons, with which you can explore cultural events on your own or with friends. In addition, by showing your Universität Heidelberg ID Card, students can receive tickets to the theatre, the opera, concerts, museums, and other events at a reduced rate.

Heidelberg's own Municipal Theater presents excellent performances in drama, opera, and modern dance. Our students also take advantage of Germany's first national theater in neighboring Mannheim (15 minutes away from Heidelberg). You can get tickets for the Heidelberg Philharmonic Orchestra and attend events at the numerous festivals in or around town, from jazz to international film, from photo festivals to poetry slams; there is a wide variety of ways to use your AJY culture coupons for cultural opportunities!

Heidelberg is home to several museums, the best known being the Kurpfälzisches Museum with fascinating collections of Roman and Celtic archaeology, Heidelberg history, and fine arts dating from medieval times to the present. The city and the university also have interesting collections in the fields of pharmacy, ethnology, and classical sculpture. The Universität Heidelberg maintains a museum about the more than 600-year history of the university and permits tours of the university's student prison. The university library houses the Codex Manesse, which is generally considered to be the finest existing collection of Middle High German poetry and scenes of courtly life.

For soccer fans interested in watching Bundesliga matches, there is the nearby Rhein-Neckar-Arena, home of the first league soccer club 1866 Hoffenheim. One of the leading teams in Europe's champions Ice Hockey League, the Mannheimer Adler, also has its home arena a short ways outside Heidelberg.

Aside from the University Sports Facilities, Heidelberg has 120 community sports clubs (for example, rugby, lacrosse, and rowing), as well as two outdoor and three indoor pools. And, finally, during the Spring Semester, you have the opportunity to run in the annual Heidelberg half marathon or participate in the Heidelbergman triathlon. So it should be clear that you will not get bored.

Staying with a German Family

During their entire stay in Heidelberg, all AJY students live in university dormitories. Short-term homestays (one to two weeks duration) with German families are available to full-year and full-semester students who wish to experience life with a German family. Typically, these homestays take place during the holiday season in December or during the break between the fall and the spring semester (mid-February to mid-April).

AJY cooperates with 'Das Experiment', a German non-profit organization that offers homestays throughout Germany. These homestays are available at virtually no charge to the student and are highly recommended. Prospective students who are interested in this should consult the Experiment e.V. website. Please be sure to contact AJY (ajy@uni-heidelberg.de) well in advance to ensure placement since opportunities are limited.

Vacation and Travel

AJY organizes a number of study trips and excursions during the preliminary course. During the semester, we also encourage you to take advantage of the day and weekend excursions planned by the International Office of Universität Heidelberg. The destinations for these excursions include such interesting sites as Nürnberg, Würzburg, Rothenburg ob der Tauber, Strasbourg, or Hamburg. AJY culture coupons may be used to help pay for some of these excursions.

A very popular feature of the program is the German Rail Pass, which is included in the program fee. This pass can be used for your own individual travel during breaks or on weekends. Full year students can opt for an Interrail Pass during their second semester. We will spend a fair amount of time during orientation discussing travel options in Germany and Europe.

- ➔ As a full-time student at Universität Heidelberg, you will be issued a Student ID card. This card will provide you with many student discounts in Heidelberg and all over Germany. However, for travelling in Europe, you might want to purchase an ISE or ISIC Card in order to receive student discounts and services. Please see: www.isecard.com, www.isic.de.

We look forward to seeing you in Heidelberg.

Bis bald!
