

STUDY ABROAD

Want to see the world?

Studying abroad can heighten the experience you have here at Heidelberg University. Please consider the many benefits of studying abroad such as (but not limited to):

- Experiencing new cultures
  - Maturing as a person
  - Becoming more self-reliant and self-assured
- Adding resume experience—employers and graduate schools typically look favorably upon those who have studied abroad

Any student can study abroad at some point during their course of study. Regardless of major, students can spend a semester, full year, or summer term studying in another country.

Better yet? Financial aid and scholarships are available!

Heidelberg has affiliations with programs that offer study in locations such as Germany, Spain, Italy, Ireland, Australia, South Africa, Morocco, England, New Zealand, South Korea, Costa Rica and many more!

There are many positive aspects of studying abroad during your time here at Heidelberg. Don't ask yourself, "Should I study abroad?" but "When should I?"
